2017 Linden Square Events

The City of Gladstone will partner with Gladstone Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 10906 and the Bennett & Dennis Herrick Memorial American Legion Post 626 to present the VFW National Armed Forces Day Celebration on May 20 at Linden Square in Downtown Gladstone. This event will recognize, honor, and celebrate the men and women who served and continue to serve our country at home and abroad during times of war, and military conflict and peace, while also honoring and remembering the sacrifices of the men and women who have died so we may live in peace and freedom today.

Armed Forces Day Celebration

May 20, 2017

9 - 10 a.m. — Big Shoal Cemetery

10 a.m. - 4 p.m. — Atkins-Johnson Farm & Museum

11 a.m. - 1 p.m. — Linden Square

The celebration begins at 9 a.m. at the Big Shoal Cemetery with a tribute to the nine veterans buried there, including a rifle salute, speaker and wreath-laying ceremony. From 10 a.m. - 4 p.m., the Atkins-Johnson Farm & Museum will be open and free to honor Veterans. Civil War military re-enactment demonstrations will be offered throughout the day. There will be a readers theater and discussion entitled "Shared Stories of the Civil War; Quantrill's Raid and Order Number 11" at 2 p.m.

Emcee Susan Hiland, former Fox 4 News anchor, will kick-off the activities at Linden

Square at 11 a.m. Chief Warrant Officer 5 Michelle Struempf of the Missouri National Guard will give the keynote address followed by a future soldier swear-in ceremony, prisoner of war observance, Clay County remembrances and a flag-folding demonstration and Explanation of the 13 folds. The American Legion Band will play throughout the program, which will last about two hours. During the program, there will be activities for children including a bounce house, pugil pit, costume contest, prizes and more.

2017 Linden Square Events

Grab your lawn chair or bring your blanket and a pillow and enjoy movies on the big screen under the stars at Linden Square. Come out early to visit with friends and family. Concessions will be available.

La La Land June 17

Sebastian (Ryan Gosling) and Mia (Emma Stone) are drawn together by their common desire to do what they love. But as success mounts, they are faced with decisions that begin to fray the fragile fabric of their love affair, and the dreams they worked so hard to maintain in each other threaten to rip them apart.

Finding Dory July 15

Dory (Ellen DeGeneres) is a wide-eyed, blue tang fish who suffers from memory loss every 10 seconds or so. The one thing she can remember is that she somehow became separated from her parents as a child. With help from her friends Nemo and Marlin, Dory embarks on an epic adventure to find them. Her journey brings her to the Marine Life Institute, a conservatory that houses diverse ocean species. Dory now knows that her family reunion will only happen if she can save Mom and Dad from captivity.

Back to the Future Aug. 19

In this 1980s sci-fi classic, small-town California teen Marty McFly (Michael J. Fox) is thrown back into the '50s when an experiment by his eccentric scientist friend Doc Brown (Christopher Lloyd) goes awry. Traveling through time in a modified DeLorean car, Marty encounters young versions of his parents (Crispin Glover, Lea Thompson), and must make sure that they fall in love or he'll cease to exist. Even more dauntingly, Marty has to return to his own time and save the life of Doc Brown.

Damien Gunn 4:30 - 5:15 p.m.

Kansas City's award-winning hard country rock band, Damien Gunn, plays music that is 50 percent down-home good ol' boy and 50 percent street smart city big time. Their music is bass-driven, guitar-ripping and soul-beating, combined with harmonic melodies and the best sounds of old Lynard Skynard and Molly Hatchet to the present-day sounds of artists like Eric Church and Jason Aldean. If you're looking for your momma's country music, this is probably not the band for you. But, if you like a band that can raise the bar and keep the crowd pumping, this is the band for you.

Augie G 6:30 - 7 p.m.

Rather than a "normal" magic show, Augie G focuses on a combination of audience participation, comedy and dangerous stunts. At any of his shows, you're likely to see knife juggling, whip cracking, escapes and a whole host of other skills. During Augie G's shows, he likes to bring up audience members and get them involved in the show. This helps to personalize the show to the audience.
